1-Not ok 2-ok 5-Good 11-Great
Called to ask before event, person at project didn't say anything about location or closing time, located in abandon mall, no signage, place closed at 5 p.m., volunteers got lost, also thought we would caravan there. Good Stuff!! More time for them. Spend more time. Definitely, I think since we came late we should've stayed a bit longer.
I was asked to throw out hundreds of books-Oh No!!! #bibliophile.
I wish our project had more options planned.
Was not very organized....wasted time the first 20 minutes or so.
Glad to have been able to help.
Need more organization but Kristen was great!
Thank you Ruvelle with the Education Alliance for organizing the service projects.
Not enough to do.

Do Not Return!
I'm not fond of this hotel. I want our cabins back!
What they said! I missed the home cooked meals and adventures.
Above comment.... You had cabin!?!?
Loved the CABINS; family feel, relax, but still learned, GREAT food choices.
Great location to fight poverty with a passion-in the back yard of the filthy rich.
Would return: Pros: wifi, cell service, location to gas& quick munchies, easy interstate access, people. Cons: clean up SVC-meh, rat maze, cleaning.
Loved my roommate!
